Response to Press Speculation

The Board of Tremor notes the recent press speculation and confirms that it is in discussions with Goldman Sachs as an ongoing financial adviser. However, the Company also confirms that it is not currently in a sale process.

From time to time, the Company receives inquiries, and the Board evaluates such inquiries, as applicable, together with its financial advisor. The Board continues to believe in the stand-alone prospects of the business, and also recognizes its fiduciary duties to its shareholders.

A further announcement will be made if and when appropriate.

Forward Looking Statements

This release contains forward-looking statements, including forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the United States Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements are identified by words such as “anticipates,” “believes,” “expects,” “intends,” “may,” “can,” “will,” “estimates,” and other similar expressions. However, these words are not the only way Tremor identifies forward-looking statements. All statements contained in this release that do not relate to matters of historical fact should be considered forward-looking statements, including without limitation statements regarding the anticipated retention of a financial advisor and any strategic sales process or evaluation. These statements are neither promises nor guarantees but involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other important factors that may cause Tremor's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from its expectations expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, the following: negative global economic conditions, potential negative developments in the COVID-19 pandemic as well as global conflicts and war, and how those developments may adversely impact Tremor’s business, customers, and the markets in which Tremor competes, changes in industry trends, and other negative developments in Tremor's business or unfavourable legislative or regulatory developments. Tremor cautions you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. For a more detailed discussion of these factors, and other factors that could cause actual results to vary materially, interested parties should review the risk factors listed in Tremor’s most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F, which was filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (www.sec.gov) on March 7, 2023. Any forward-looking statements made by Tremor in this press release speak only as of the date of this press release, and Tremor does not intend to update these forward-looking statements after the date of this press release, except as required by law.
