Completed $25 Million Investment in VIDAA and Enhanced Strategic Relationship with Hisense

Completed $25 million investment in VIDAA, a smart TV operating system and streaming platform, and subsidiary of Hisense

Investment granted Tremor an equity stake and extended the exclusive global agreement to share VIDAA’s ACR data for global measurement and targeting across our end-to-end platform

VIDAA granted ad monetization exclusivity in the US, UK, Canada, and Australia to the Unruly SSP and Spearad ad server

ACR agreement enables Tremor to offer unique data sets to customers and creates new potential data revenue opportunities with customers, peers, & major streaming providers
Strong ACR Data Opportunity Enabled by VIDAA Investment

- Automatic Content Recognition ("ACR") data is viewership data collected from the smart TV, which enables those with access to understand what content and commercials consumers were exposed to.

- Data critical for targeting and measurement for advertisers and streaming services.

- Streaming services can see what is viewed on their platforms but not what is watched outside of those platforms on the TV, creating data gaps.

- Tremor uniquely positioned, as most ACR data monetized within Walled Gardens, and as AVOD grows in popularity.

- As Hisense / VIDAA’s reach grows, ACR data footprint expected to be even more desirable.
